Qualification Pathways for Commercial Growers

Project Number: CP 76
Title: Qualification Pathways for Commercial Growers
Start and end dates: 01 April 2010 – 31 March 2012
Project Leader: Tim Briercliffe
Project Co-ordinator: Ian Ashton
Location: HTA HQ in Berkshire

Background and project objectives:

This Knowledge Transfer Partnership project aims to create a new structure for the delivery of learning within commercial horticulture, based on the new Qualification and Credit Framework (QCF), for which Lantra have responsibility, for land-based qualifications.

The work will develop, pilot and deliver innovative methods of learning and assessment. It will provide the structured learning required by the industry, to deliver appropriately skilled people to continue to develop the industry's competitive edge for the 21st Century and beyond.

The work will integrate HDC outputs into learning materials which will support these qualifications.
